

RBA No Refund Policy

No Refund Policy for Royale Business Academy

At Royale Business Academy (RBA), we strive to provide high-quality digital products and educational experiences. To maintain the integrity and security of our offerings, we have implemented the following no refund policy.

1. Digital Products: All sales of digital products are final. Once a purchase is made, you are granted immediate access to the products, and due to the nature of digital content, we cannot offer refunds.
2. Academic Enrollment: Enrollment in our courses is also non-refundable. Upon registration, you gain immediate access to course materials and resources, which makes it impossible to issue refunds.
3. Safety and Security: This policy is in place to protect the safety and security of our product links, digital content, and individual course enrollments. We take these measures seriously to ensure that our customers receive exclusive access to their purchases.
4. Customer Satisfaction: We are committed to customer satisfaction and encourage you to thoroughly review course descriptions and product details before making a purchase. The RBA Support Team is available to answer any questions you may have to ensure you make an informed decision.

By completing a purchase or enrolling in a course at RBA, you acknowledge and agree to this no refund policy

RBA Earnings Disclaimer

At Royale Business Academy (RBA), we are committed to delivering high-value education, strategies, and tools designed to empower entrepreneurs in launching and scaling digital and physical businesses.

While every effort has been made to accurately represent our programs and the value they provide, we make no guarantees regarding your income, results, or business success. Any sales figures, revenue snapshots, or testimonials shared on our platforms are exceptional results and should not be considered typical, promised, or guaranteed outcomes.

Success in business — especially in the digital and MRR (Master Resell Rights) space — depends on many individual factors including, but not limited to: your background, skillset, experience, financial resources, consistency, effort, and the current market conditions. Your journey is unique. Any use of our materials, products, or strategies is entirely at your own risk. By engaging with RBA content, whether free or paid, you acknowledge and agree that RBA is not liable for your decisions, business outcomes, or financial results.

We provide our content “as is,” with no express or implied warranties — and subject to our No Refund Policy.

If you're ready to take aligned action, invest in your growth, and build your business with strategy and intention, you're in the right place — but remember, your results are in your hands.

Thank you for understanding and supporting our academy!
